

Leagues' Overview

Updated on 20 May 2020

Leagues' Overview

Members Map

Approved (12)

Austria June 2	Norway June 16
Czech Republic May 25	Portugal June 4
Denmark May 28	Poland May 29
Germany May 16	Russia June 21
Israel May 30	Serbia May 30
Lithuania May 30	Turkey June 12

Cancelled (4)

Belgium Concluded
France Concluded
Netherlands Concluded
Scotland Concluded

In Progress (14)

Azerbaijan Sport event forbiden until May 31	Italy Waiting on Gov decision	Slovakia Gov allowed restart as of June 3, waiting on leagues meeting approval
England Waiting on Gov decision	Kazakhstan Waiting on Gov decision	Spain Waiting on Gov decision
Finland Waiting on Gov decision. Plan to restart July 1	Latvia Waiting on Gov decision	Sweden Waiting on Gov decision
Greece Waiting on Gov decision Potential restart date 6 June	Northern Ireland Waiting on Gov decision	Switzerland Start date to be decided on May 29
	Romania Waiting on Gov decision. Potential restart date June 13	Ukraine Waiting on Gov decision. Potential restart date May 30

Leagues overview

Leagues	Resuming Training	Resuming Competition	Protocols
AUT 	Government opened training in small groups for top tier without “contact between players” starting from Monday 20.04. Top and second tier can restart team training 15 May Additionally youth and grassroots football will be allowed to restart training (with restrictions 2m distance) as of 15 May	Competition to restart 2 June (29 May first game with cup-final). 10 matchdays have to be played with last round on 04./05 June. Additional 3 play-off-matches for last UEFA sport will follow from 08-15 June. Second Tier will restart on weekend 05.-07. June and will play 11 matchdays until 31. July	Training / Competition protocols developed
AZE 	Postponed until further notice	Unfortunately the government extended the quarantine period to 31th of May in some major cities. Due to this reason APFL cancelled the resumption date of Premier league and I Division which was May 23 and May 21 respectively	Work in progress
BEL 	The Belgian Government has decided that no football games will be allowed till 31 July.	Competition was officially ended by the General Assembly of Friday 15 May	N/A
CZE 	The government of Czech Republic has allowed possibility of trainings for professional teams in groups of max. 8 players on the pitch in one moment from Monday 20 April. 4 May , trainings in groups up to 10 players but already without keeping distance 2m among players. From 11 May free trainings still without using dressing rooms and showers. From 25 May trainings already allow with using of dressing rooms and showers.	The League Committee approved the restart of competition(1. and 2. Division.) from 25 May 2020 - Saturday May 23 will be played one postponed match of the 1st league under very strictly conditions for only 150 people incl. players, staff etc. without media (only min. for broadcaster). Then after May 25, on Tuesday May 26 respectively, we want to restart both competitions with a model Wednesday-Sunday (two games per week for each team) For league matches is allow 300 people at the stadium inclusive players and staff.	Training protocol developed Other protocols in progress

Leagues' overview

Leagues	Resuming Training	Resuming Competition	Protocols
DEN 	The league made some guidelines (made by the rules of the Danish health authorities) so the clubs are back to training	Denmark's Superliga to resume on 28 May behind closed doors	Training / Match operation protocols developed
ENG-PL 	Premier League Shareholders voted unanimously to return to small-group training from 19 May, the first step towards restarting the Premier League, when safe to do so.	Work with UK government to restart in June	Training protocol developed Other protocols in progress
ENG-FL 	Start of training for EFL clubs pushed back to May 25 at the earliest	Work with UK government to restart in June	Training protocol developed Other protocols in progress
FRA 	The Ligue 1 and Ligue 2 seasons are over. LFP already decided on final table	The Ligue 1 and Ligue 2 seasons will not resume after France banned all sporting events, including behind closed doors, until September.	N/A
GER 	Bundesliga clubs back to training	The Bundesliga and the 2. Bundesliga started with matches behind closed doors as from 16 May	Medical/Procedural protocols developed
GRE 	Team training without limitations (on pitch) is allowed since May 18th. Use of indoor facilities is allowed with restrictions.	Restart date 6-7 June agreed by SLG meeting but waiting for approval of the government	Training protocol developed Other protocols in progress
ISR 	Government allowed as of 22/04/20 training for professional clubs. Full training starting 11 May	Government approved that top two divisions could restart on May 30	Work in progress

Leagues' overview

Leagues	Resuming Training	Resuming Competition	Protocols
ITA 	Individual training as from 04/05 Group training as from 20/05	Decision from government could be held on 28 May Serie A selects potential return date as from June 13. Italian FA fixed for 20 August latest end of season 19/20	Medical/Training protocols developed Other protocols in progress
NED 	Training in small groups has resumed in the Netherlands	Eredivisie cancelled season without any champion, relegation and promotion	N/A
NIR 	Government has released its five stage roadmap and 'contact sports' cannot return until stage 5 of their plan. The roadmap does not indicate any time periods. NIR is currently in stage 1 but there are no dates linked to the plan.	Scenarios will be released once clarification is provided.	Work in progress
POL 	As of 04.05 allowed training in small groups. Full training (25 pax) as of 09.05. Until 25 may no changing rooms etc and only on approved training grounds. But from 25 may sport is allowed for every competition where there will be less than 50 persons, so amateur football could be back by law (but it is over by decision on regional associations)	Restart date 29 May behind closed doors	Work in progress Media/Marketing protocols developed
POR 	Group training under restrictions allowed	The top-tier football competition is set to resume its 2019-20 season behind closed doors on June 4. Second division canceled.	Medical/Competition protocols developed

Leagues' overview

Leagues	Resuming Training	Resuming Competition	Protocols
ROU 	Government allowed restart trainings in small groups as from 15 May	Resume the competition most probably from 13 June There are some other discussion about 1 round instead of 2 for relegation play-off. If nothing appears the FA Cup semifinals will be played in two rounds.	Training protocol developed Other protocols in progress
RUS 	Club responsibility in cooperation with local authorities and their decision.	The Executive Committee of the Russian Football Union decided at their meeting to resume the RPL season from 21 June 2020.	Work in progress
SCO 	SPFL has been advise by the Scottish Government that the current restrictions will remain in place until 10 June at least, possibly later. The Scottish FA has suspended all football and training until at least 10 June.	Ladbrokes Premiership and SPFL Season 2019/20 curtailed as Premiership clubs reach unanimous agreement that top flight cannot be finished	N/A
SRB 	Trainings are allowed under restriction	FA decided to continue the Super League (first division) and the Serbian First League (second division) from 30 May Only 4 rounds of the preliminary phase will be played. Play off and play out phase will not play. Also 3 rounds of Serbian CUP will be played.	Work in progress

Leagues' overview

Leagues	Resuming Training	Resuming Competition	Protocols
SVK 	Group trainings (5 people per 30x30m) allowed from 24th April. Government allowed as of 20th May collective trainings without limitation	League matches could restart after 3rd June (without fans, maximum of 100 person inside stadium), preparing for league meeting on 22nd May	Training / Competition protocols developed
ESP 	Back to training 8 May	Working on several scenarios to resume the competition from mid June, earliest 12 June	Training protocol developed Other protocols in progress
SUI 	Team training possible as of 11 May, subject to protective measures, which must be implemented mainly off the pitch. It is the responsibility of the clubs to decide when to resume training operations.	Resumption of competition will be decided at an extraordinary general assembly on 29 May. A possible restart could be June 18.	Training / Competition protocols developed
TUR 	Clubs back to training with restrictions	12 June restart of the season.	Training / Competition protocols developed
UKR 	Trainings are allowed as of 12 May, with restrictions	Waiting on Government approval Plan to resume competition on May 30th and finish July 24th	Work in progress

Leagues' overview (Summer Leagues)

Leagues	Resuming Training	Resuming Competition	Protocols
FIN 	Finnish league clubs have started to train in small groups (max 4). Government has banned for more than 10 people to meet. This limitation will be evaluated again plan to start normal training 1 June	Waiting on Government approval Plan to restart season 1 July. At least for July limit is 500 people in stadium including teams, personnel etc. Season will be played until 21.11. 2 x round robin and after that one time top six and lower six. (27 round). If the league has to postpone lots of matches due to Covid then season can be reduced to 22 rounds. Finnish Cup to restart 16 June - 1/16, QF and SF will be played before July	Work in progress
KAZ 	Training started from 11 May (in some regions of the country some earlier).	Discussion with government: 4 plans with 4 dates for restart - 1 June, 10 June, 20 June and 1 July.	Work in progress
LAT 	Waiting for Gov approval to restart normal training 1 June Clubs are training in groups without contact since mid-May	Waiting on Government approval Potential Start date: 14 June End date: 7 November	Work in progress
LIT 	As of 30 April Lithuanian professional clubs have been allowed to hold normal trainings. Staff has to wear masks, glasses, all the disinfections, temperature measurements are mandatory, but players no longer have to keep distance between themselves.	Government and clubs approved that league could restart on May 30	Work in progress
NOR 	Premiership teams in Eliteserien have started training with full contact again as of Monday May 11.	Eliteserien will start playing league matches on June 16	Protocol developed
SWE 	Training allowed	Waiting on Government approval Potential restart date 14 June End season in the beginning of December to put all rounds in	Protocol developed

Disclaimer

This is a living document produced by the European Leagues with information provided by its Members.

This document will be updated and shared on a regular basis (latest update: 20/05/2020)

For more information please contact :

Alberto.colombo@europeanleagues.com

Kevin.batardiere@europeanleagues.com