

Super League Greece dedicates Matchday 24 to women

Translated in English from original version Source: slgr.gr Date: March 2026

The 24th matchday of the Super League Greece championship was dedicated to women, highlighting the importance of gender equality, respect and the role of women in society and sport. Through this initiative, the League aimed to send a strong message in support of women's rights and the fight against discrimination, using football's visibility to raise awareness among fans and the wider public. Across all matches, coordinated actions were implemented to promote this message, reinforcing football's role as a platform for social awareness and inclusion. This initiative forms part of the League's broader efforts to promote values such as equality, respect and inclusion, both on and off the pitch. The dedicated matchday aimed to raise awareness of women's rights and gender equality, promote respect and inclusion in football and society, and use football as a tool for social impact and visibility.
